When Work Slows Down

For different reasons, work even in times of prosperity, slows down for days, sometimes for weeks, in certain lines of industry.

The minute the wage earner is laid off he and his family begin to worry.

But there is no worrying in the family where a savings account is kept at the bank. In saving they have anticipated just such emergencies like shut-downs.

In good weather and fair, in times of work and enforced idleness—the savings account is always a friend.

Fire Insurance for Roomers

People rooming at hotels, boarding houses or private homes frequently have enough personal property in their rooms to warrant their carrying fire insurance. Yet many neglect this precaution.

School teachers, especially, often have small libraries. This is just a sample case of personal property that may require insurance protection.

Fire can destroy property anywhere. Have you protection against fire loss?

WORDS OF WISDOM! A few "words of wisdom" coupled with a little good and friendly advice may not come amiss during these times of HIGH and increasingly high clothing and shoe prices. It will be well for every reader of this announcement to sit down and take stock of themselves and their finances, because there are many people who are looking a little further ahead than the "end of their nose." You should consider what you have been paying for clothing, shoes, hats, caps and furnishings and what you are liable to pay in the future, for no well read person believes we have yet reached the end of high prices. But you ask, why does a merchant hold a sale under such conditions if he can get more for his goods later? We are forced out of business, forced to vacate. The Hammond Hotel and Improvement Co. have leased these premises and will soon tear down this big building and construct a nine-story hotel and 2,500 seat theatre. But to the public here is an immediate relief for the clothing, shoes, hats, caps and furnishings you need this spring and summer. A chance to buy high grade suits, shoes, hats, caps, shirts, underwear, etc., for less than they are worth today. Don't let procrastination be the thief of time. Come to look, and you'll stay to buy.
